INTRODUCTION:

A. The cause of our "inner battle" is our two natures – the new and the old.

The trouble [the battle] is with me, for I am all too human...I love God's law with all my heart. But there is another power within me that is at war with my mind...In my mind I really want to obey God's law [our new nature], but because of my sinful nature I am a slave to sin.
— Romans 7:14, 23-24

So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus and because you belong to Him, the power of the life-giving Spirit has freed you from the power of sin that leads to death.
— Romans 8:1-2

B. ...throw off your old sinful nature...Instead...put on your new nature... Ephesians 4:22-23

C. ...for you have stripped off your old sinful nature...Put on your new nature and be renewed...
— Colossians 3:10

I. IT IS A COSTLY BATTLE

A. Our inner battle is confusing.

I don't really understand myself, for I want to do what is right, but I don't do it.
— Romans 7:15

B. Our guilty conscience [shame and guilt] points our inner battle.

But I know that what I am doing is wrong...
— Romans 7:16

C. If we don't battle, our sin will defeat us.

...it is the sin living within me that [makes me sin].
— Romans 7:17

D. Then we become self-condemning.

And I know that nothing good lives in me...[only] my sinful nature.
— Romans 7:18a

E. Self-condemnation leads to frustration, discouragement—even despair.

I want to do what is good, but I don't. I don't want to do what is wrong, but I do it anyway....This power makes me a slave to the sin that is still in me.
— Romans 7:19 & 23

II. GOD'S BATTLE PLAN FOR VICTORY

A. Keep putting Christ first each and every day.

Who will free me from this life that is dominated by sin and death?
Thank God! The answer is in Jesus Christ our Lord.
— Romans 7:24

B. Detect and disarm the lie I have been believing and living.

If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.
— I John 1:8

"And you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."
— John 8:32

C. Share your struggle with another.

Confess your sins to each other and pray for each other so God can heal you.
— James 5:16
