Getting Started:

What kinds of issues have you seen divide your family or friends in the past year?

How have you personally handled these kinds of situations?

Searching the Scriptures:

Read Jude 17-21

A. What is the anecdote for handling scoffers?

B. What does it mean to build yourself up in the faith and pray in the Holy Spirit?

C. How would you describe to someone the best way to “keep yourself in God’s love’?

Read Jude 22-23

D. How does this section help us approach different kinds of people?

E. These verses instruct us how to deal with the victims of false teachers. Why is it important to have compassion on those who are deceived? What are the warnings here?

Read Jude 24-25

F. How does this passage counteract the anxiety and fear that might have been caused by this letter?

G. Talk about how the truths expressed in this doxology speak to you and give you hope.

Application

A. What are you doing to protect yourself from error?

B. What can you do to fight evil and snatch people from the fire?
