SCC Small Group Study – August 27, 2023 Rev. Rick Dietzman

Hebrews 10:19-25

Getting Started:

How would you	describe your	current app	proach to e	engaging	with the E	Bible? W	/hat are some methods y	you've found e	ffective in u	ınderstand	ding and r	emembe	ring its c	ontent?

In Matthew 18:20, Jesus mentions being present when even just two or three gather in His name. How does this promise impact your view of participating in group Bible studies or discussions?

Searching the Scriptures:

A.	According to 2 Timothy 3:15-17, what purposes does Scripture serve in our lives?
	How have you personally experienced its ability to correct, teach, and prepare you to do good works?

- B. Consistent review helps us remember God's Word. Can you share an example of a verse or passage that has become meaningful to you through regular reflection? How has it influenced your actions or attitudes?
- C. How do you interpret the concept of "abiding in God's word" from John 8:31-32, and what practical steps can we take to truly abide in His word in our daily lives?
- D. Rick highlighted that groups can create a nonthreatening environment for discussing Scripture. How do you think this type of environment encourages deeper sharing and learning?

E.	Hebrews 10:23 talks about holding onto hope without wavering. How can this verse guide us in dealing with doubts or challenges in our faith journey?
F.	Hebrews 10:24 encourages motivating one another to acts of love and good works. Can you share an example of how being part of a supportive Christian community has inspired you to make a positive impact?
G.	Discuss the importance of regular meetings as mentioned in Hebrews 10:25. How does consistent attendance contribute to the growth and unity of a spiritual community?
Ap	Application of Scripture:
A.	The message highlights the importance of discussions and conversations about Scripture. Can you recall a time when discussing a Bible passage with others deepened your understanding or perspective on it?
B.	How can you incorporate more intentional review and reflection on Scripture into your daily routine, based on the principle of "remembering what you review"?
C.	In what practical ways can you actively encourage and motivate fellow believers toward acts of love and good works, as encouraged in Hebrews 10:24?
