The Inviting God: Worship

Derived from a sermon on October 11, 2026 by Keith Sandell

Getting Started:

What is something that has happened to you lately that you would tell others about to glorify God?

Searching the Scriptures:

Read Psalm 95:1-11

1. When you think about worshiping God on your own, what specific acts come to mind?
2. How does that compare with the things you associate with corporate worship?
3. Why is God worthy of our worship, according to verses 3-5?
4. What words and phrases did the psalmist use to describe God? How do these descriptions help draw you in and focus your thoughts?

5. Where do you currently need to find gladness in the Lord? How might this be gained through cultivating thanksgiving?

6. How does what happened at Meribah and Massah (See Exodus 17:1-7) relate to the present hardening of hearts the psalmist is addressing in verse 8-9?

7. What does it mean to enter the “Rest of God” (See Hebrews 4:1-3)?

Application Questions

How does the psalmist’s invitation to worship challenge you today?

Read Hebrews 10:24-25. How does meeting together help you to worship?
