In Rhythm: Lessons from Psalms
Psalm 63 – Getting out of the Religious Rut

Derived from a sermon on November 8, 2026 by Dr. Jeff Chandler

Getting Started:

At what point in your life did you become aware of God? What prompted you to start praying?

Searching the Scriptures:

Read Psalm 63:1-8

1. Have you ever felt that you were in a "desert season" What was it like? Where was God in it?

2. When you dwell upon God, what causes you to worship Him?

3. What about God's personality and works are amazing to you right now? Why is that so?

4. Why is it so easy for us to desire other things more than we desire God? What are some examples?

5. Is there anything in this life that at one time you wanted more than God? If so, what?

6. Why should God's holiness cause us to want him more than life itself (v. 3)?

7. Do you know what it looks and feels like to long for God, just as David did? If not, what needs to change?

Applying the Scriptures:

How have you experienced God's power in your life? How have you experienced his love?

One question to diagnose your spiritual health is: "Do I long for God?" How would you answer this?
